English for Everyday Use

Asking and Giving Information (Items 1-7)

Situation : Kitti, a Thai student in Australia, is looking for an apartment.

Landlady : Hello, MC Apartment. ...1...?

Kitti : Have you got a room for rent ?

Landlady : There'll be one available at the end of this week.

Kitti : Hmm, today is Thursday already ...2...? Is it within walking distance of the University ?

Landlady : It's on Prince Edward Street, near the Science Museum,...3... . And you'll also find a bus stop just around the corner as well.

Kitti : ...4... . Well, ...5... ?

Landlady : It's $150 per week, not including utilities. The utilities will be charged according to usage. Each room has got a separate meter.

Kitti : I see. ...6... ?

Landlady : I'm afraid I already have an appointment, but I'll probably be back at Around 5. ...7... ?

Kitti : That's fine for me. See you then. Bye.
